

Fortune of Year 2021 for People Born in the Year of the Sheep

Career Tip: Lie Low And Bear Your Burdens Patiently

2021 won't treat those born in the year of the sheep too well. Not only does your birth sign clash with the Tai Sui of the year, but your life cycle is also populated by a multitude of ill-omened stars. Take no risks as they are most certain to lead to devastating falls. Work-wise, expect to face obstacles galore and many disputes that require your utmost care and diplomacy skills. Due to the star Leopard's Tail in your life cycle, you may feel oppression from someone with more power or privilege. Don't attempt to fight back as it will be futile and possibly humiliating—hang on to what you have and don't be greedy for more.

Besides that, with the unlucky "Iron Bars" star in your life cycle, you may often come across backstabbers and legal disputes this year. It will be wise to lay low as aggressive ventures will likely lead to trouble. One relief is that the lucky star "Earthly Salvation" happens to also be in your life cycle, meaning that things will turn around for the better if you remain cautious. Those born in the year of the tiger and, to a lesser degree, those born in the year of the monkey are your good-luck charms when it comes to your career. Collaborations with such people are likely to change your work life for the better. Careers involving the elements wood and metal will be the most beneficial to you.

Finance Tip: As Expenses Are High, Try To Save Up Beforehand

Your fortune regarding finance isn't looking that great this year. Your main income source is unstable and there's no need to hope for gain from other sources as it will most likely not come to fruition. Due to the "Huge Drain" star in your life cycle, many unexpected expenses will come up, so you'll do well to remember to save up before the storm comes. Your financial luck will be at its lowest in the three autumn months, so be especially careful with your money and steer clear of gambling activities and investments of all types.

Health Tip: Don't Overwork, Be Careful At High-up Places

Your health fortune won't be that good this year. You may constantly feel exhausted and will need lots of rest to recuperate. Don't push yourself to work too hard as that may lead to diseases.

Fortune of Year 2021 for People Born in the Year of the Sheep

Your heart, spleen and stomach are susceptible to damage, which may be irreversible if you're not careful. The ill-omened "Conflict of the Year" star signals potential trouble while hiking or in high-up locations, so be extra careful in case of falling from a high spot. Be especially cautious when it comes to transportation in the autumn and watch out for contagious diseases toward the end of the year by taking good care of your personal hygiene.

Relationship Tip: Relationships May Be Unstable, So Try To Achieve A Mutual Understanding

Due to the "Lunar Conflict" star in your life cycle, your relationships may be unstable this year and will require dedicated maintenance. Communicate often with your partner and try to achieve a mutual understanding, or else your relationship may soon fall apart. If it does fall apart, try not to let it get to you and focus on future possibilities instead.

Sheep: Ambassadors Of Joy

Magpies have traditionally been seen as the bearer of joyful news. This ornament comes with a pair of magpies in a tree and two sheep (yang in Chinese, the same pronunciation as the character for abundance), forming a blissful scene that will easily balance out all misfortune.

Those born in the year of the sheep are clashing with the year's Tai Sui, and may therefore be down on luck this year, facing obstacles in work, unexpected expenditures, and unstable relationships that require special care. Place this "Ambassadors of Joy" ornament in the south of your quarters, and it will bring you a year of good fortune.
