

Fortune of Year 2021 for People Born in the Year of the Snake

Career Tip: Do Your Best, And Don't Trifle With The Law

Those born in the year of the snake can expect a tumultuous year with both good happenings and bad. Many ill-omened stars are in your life cycle this year, but the auspicious star “Three Pillars” will ensure that your misfortunes end happily instead of in disaster. Due to the unlucky star, “Point at the Back”, you should look out for backstabbers and rumor-spreaders this year. Try to always remain cautious and lawful so that others wouldn't be able to find reasons to accuse you. The “Legal Spell” star being in your life cycle also means that legal affairs may come up and, if you have to go to court, it will likely end in defeat. Therefore, you're advised to steer clear of illegal affairs, or you may face dire consequences.

In addition to that, due to the “Five Ghosts” star appearing in your life cycle, you can expect to be surrounded by rivals in your career, so do err on the side of caution with everything you do and always work hard. On a lighter note, with the lucky star “Three Pillars” in position, your hard work will pay off and your rivals will have nothing on you. Those born in the year of the monkey and, to a lesser degree, those born in the year of the chicken are your good-luck charms when it comes to your career. Collaborations with such people are likely to lead to a breakthrough in your work life. Careers involving the elements earth and wood will be the most beneficial to you.

Finance Tip: Save As Much As You Can And Steer Clear Of Risky Ventures

Your financial fortune this year is hard to predict, so it's better to pare down your expenses and save for a rainy day, as you're expected to have to spend a lot throughout the year. It's unlikely for you to gain much money from sources other than your regular ones, so it'd be better to refrain from risky ventures. Winter will be the time of the year when your financial luck is the worst, so be extra careful—but there's still hope, as things will start looking up at the very end of the year.

Health Tip: Take Care Of Your Mouth And Your Kids

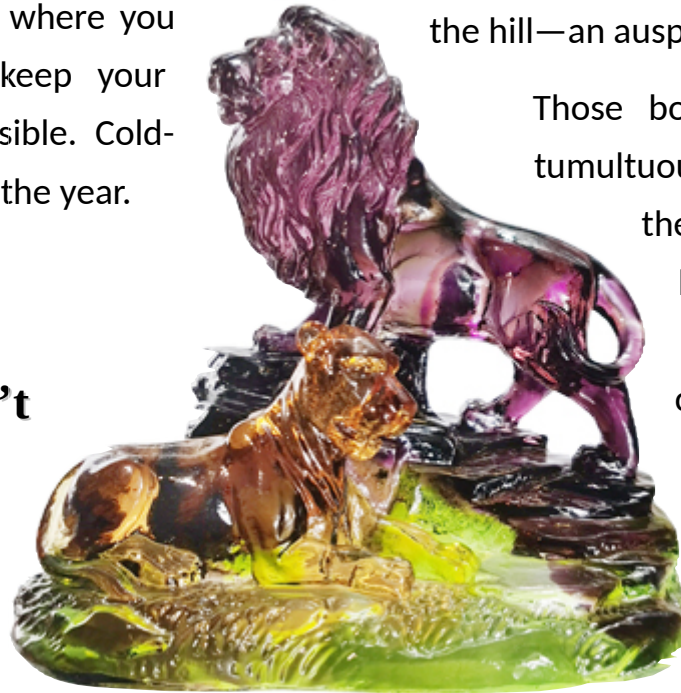

Your health won't be especially good or bad this year, so there shouldn't be much to worry about as long as you're careful with hygiene and take care of yourself. Issues related to the mouth, teeth and respiratory system may arise this year. You also need to be especially vigilant when it comes to household troubles, including fires and thefts, and watch out for accidents that may happen to children in your household. The end of spring towards the beginning of summer is a time where you may easily contract diseases, so try to keep your environment as clean and sanitized as possible. Cold-related illnesses may pester you at the end of the year.

Relationship Tip: Achieve An Understanding With Others. Don't Be Pushy When It Comes To Love

You may find yourself less popular this year, with a tendency of getting into conflicts. Try to achieve an understanding with others through initiating interactions and make a wide circle of friends. This will be beneficial for you both at work and in private. Your disposition this year may be melancholy, making it hard for you to find a soulmate who “gets” you. Don't try to push it when it comes to your love life, as doing so will only end disastrously.

Snake: Steps To Success

The lion is the king of all animals, robust, magnificent and immensely powerful. Here, we see a female lion standing guard at the foot of the hill while the majestic male lion makes his way up the hill—an auspicious symbol.

Those born in the year of the snake may face a tumultuous year with lots of rises and falls. Luckily, with the Three Pillars star watching over you, your hard work will pay off and lead to outstanding results—as long as you remember to be cautious with your words. Place this “Steps to Success” ornament in the northeast of your quarters, and it will bring you a year of good fortune.
