

Fortune of Year 2025 for People Born in the Year of the Dog

Career Tip: Take The Initiative And You'll Stand Out From The Crowd.

Individuals born in the Year of the Dog will enjoy a very prosperous year, with many lucky stars and few inauspicious stars in their chart. As a result, things will go smoothly at work, and you'll also receive the assistance of benefactors as an icing on the cake.

The auspicious star "Ban An" (Saddle-Turning) indicates that you'll be able to take the initiative in your career this year, and your judgment will be particularly good, which will be very helpful for the development of your career. If you can seize the opportunity and work hard, you'll stand out from the crowd and rise quickly in the ranks.

The auspicious star "Yue De" (Moon Virtue) predicts that you'll easily gain favor with others this year, and the better your relationships, the better your prospects for future career development. Keep in mind the ancient saying "It's better to resolve grudges than to create them."

Additionally, when handling business this year, pay close attention to financial management to avoid stagnation in your business due to financial issues. On the cusp of spring and summer this year, you must be extra vigilant and avoid falling for business scams that could lead to heavy losses.

Those born in the Years of the Tiger and Horse are the most helpful for your career this year. If you can work with them with sincerity, you are likely to reach new heights and reap abundant harvests.

The most favorable direction for you this year is north. The most favorable career choices are those associated with the elements "wood" and "earth".

Financial Tip: Your Finances Will Prosper, But Avoid Unnecessary Expenditure.

Those born in the Year of the Dog will enjoy a prosperous financial fortune this year, making it an excellent time for investments and starting businesses. Regular income will be rolling in.

However, the inauspicious star "Xiao Hao" (Small Depletion) warns that if you're not careful with money management this year, your wealth may trickle away without you noticing! Therefore, try to avoid excessive spending to avoid going broke.

Additionally, there may be significant expenses this year due to joyous family events, and your side income sources will be inconsistent, so avoid being overly greedy.

The months with the best financial fortune for you this year are around autumn and winter, in the eighth, ninth, and tenth months of the lunar calendar.

Health Tip: Take Care Of Your Digestive System And Stay Away From Dangerous Areas.

Those born in the Year of the Dog will be affected by the inauspicious star "Si Fu" (Death Talisman) this year, a warning that you must pay close attention to personal safety when going out. Try to stay away from dangerous areas and avoid taking unnecessary risks to prevent injuries.

Your digestive system may be weak this year, so you must pay close attention to your gut health. You're prone to catching bugs in the first two months of the year, so try to stay away from areas where infectious diseases are prevalent and take adequate preventive measures.

Additionally, you're advised to be careful when it comes to food hygiene around the late autumn period to avoid food poisoning.

Relationship Tip: You'll Find Someone Compatible, But Avoid Overthinking.

Those born in the Year of the Dog will have good relationships this year, with friends visiting from afar and lots of merriment awaiting. However, during conversations, be cautious of revealing too much and causing misunderstandings, turning friends into enemies.

It's easy for you to form connections with potential romantic partners this year, and romantic relationships are likely to blossom, but be careful not to be fickle and keep changing your mind, as this could lead to regret for both yourself and others.

Lukycharm: Continuous Joyous Events

Magpies have always been seen as birds that bring good news and are thus very popular. This piece depicts two magpies, each standing on a lotus flower, creating a scene of beauty and warmth. Because "lotus" and "continuous" are homophones in Chinese, the magpies with two lotus flowers form an auspicious sign of continuous happy events.

Those born in the Year of the Dog will be under the influence of multiple lucky stars, bringing joyous events to the family. You will enjoy outstanding work performance and wealth will come rolling in. You're suggested to place a "Continuous Joyous Events" charm in a north-facing direction or on the head of your bed to boost positive energies.
